- 2 Special Condition # 3: The defendant shall participate in a program of testing and treatment for drug and alcohol abuse, as directed by the probation officer. The cost to be paid by both the defendant and the government based upon the defendant's ability to pay.

Supporting Evidence: The offender is alleged to have violated special condition number 3, by failing to participate in a substance abuse evaluation on May 27, 2025.

Mr. Judge was scheduled to participate in a substance abuse evaluation at Pioneer Human Services (PHS) on May 27, 2025, at 2 p.m. According to PHS, he reported approximately 1 hour early for his appointment and he was told to return at his scheduled appointment time. Mr. Judge proceeded to report approximately 40 minutes late for the appointment. Due to his tardiness, the evaluation could not be completed and it was rescheduled for May 29, 2025.

- 3 Special Condition # 3: The defendant shall participate in a program of testing and treatment for drug and alcohol abuse, as directed by the probation officer. The cost to be paid by both the defendant and the government based upon the defendant's ability to pay.

Supporting Evidence: The offender is alleged to have violated special condition number 3, by failing to participate in a substance abuse evaluation on May 29, 2025.

The probation officer received email correspondence from PHS indicating the offender failed to report for his scheduled substance abuse assessment on May 29, 2025.

- 4 Standard Condition # 2: After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when to report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.

Supporting Evidence: The offender is alleged to have violated standard condition number 2, by failing to report to the probation office on May 29, 2025.

On May 28, 2025, the probation officer instructed the offender to report to the U.S. Probation Office on May 29, 2025, following his scheduled substance abuse evaluation at PHS.

Mr. Judge failed to report to the U.S. Probation Office on May 29, 2025, as instructed.

On May 29, 2025, the probation officer instructed the offender to report to the U.S. Probation Office on May 30, 2025.

Re: Judge, Zack JayJune 2, 2025*Page 3

- 6 Special Condition # 10: You must abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and must submit to urinalysis and sweat patch testing, as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than 6 tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.

Supporting Evidence: The offender is alleged to have violated special condition number 10, by failing to submit to sweat patch testing.

On May 22, 2025, a sweat patch was applied on the offender due to his failure to produce valid urine specimens. He has since failed to report to the U.S. Probation Office to have the sweat patch removed. As such, the probation officer has been unable to verify via sweat patch testing whether the offender has resorted to the use of illicit substances.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a warrant requiring the offender to appear to answer to the allegation(s) contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
